Support Street Pastors on the Isle of Wight

Street Pastors are Christian volunteers who go out on the streets of town centres in Island towns each Friday evening as a positive presence, offering practical help or a listening ear to people around the town centre. Working until 3am, a typical evening could involve diffusing an argument before it escalates into violence, giving out flip-flops to revellers who can no longer walk in their high heels, calling an ambulance for someone who has fallen ill and talking to someone who feels lost and lonely.

Help us keep helping

We are looking for people to help support the work of Street Pastors by regular giving of £10 per month – that's little more than the cost of buying a Sunday paper each week. If you are a tax payer you can gift aid your donation too, which will mean your donation goes further at no cost to you.

Street Pastors give around 100 hours a year of their time to help make our streets better, safer, happier places - please help support them by giving £10 per month.
